This week at Tugby...

We have had a great first week back full of smiles, laughter and learning.

Our new classroom is officially open!

This week marked an exciting milestone for Tugby Primary School as Rise Multi Academy Trust officially opened a brand-new classroom, designed to enhance the learning experience and support pupils in a collaborative and inspiring environment.

The event was attended by staff, pupils, parents and special guests, including Leicestershire County Councillor Kevin Feltham, who joined in celebrating this achievement, and cut the ribbon to officially unveil the new classroom. Refreshments were provided by Relish School Food for guests who attended, and parents had the chance to look inside the new room.

"We are thrilled to open this new classroom and grateful to everyone who contributed their time and hard work to bring this project to life," said Interim CEO, Dave Ellison-Lee.

The classroom is now open for use, supporting Tugby Primary's drive to provide the best for their pupils.

Please ensure you leave enough time to do this at drop off or we will not be able to administer medication. Thank you.
